

ADDING UNNECESSARY LANGUAGE COSTS TO 2015 ELECTION IS DISGRACEFUL!

The Language Commissioner has dictated that ALL polling stations (more than 64,000) in this Election must provide services in both English AND French – regardless of whether there is a need for French or not!

ANOTHER CASE OF LANGUAGE TRUMPING COMMON SENSE!

English speakers in Canada: over 65%

French speakers: 20.6% Other languages spoken: 11.09%

Running the Federal election this year will cost a projected $375 million, plus another $67 million for the reimbursement to political parties and candidates and audit costs. Adding another level of excess for French support to EVERY polling station whether it is needed or not is a shameful waste of the voter's money!

If Mr. Fraser really thinks that his irresponsible decision will help Canadians “embrace the French language” BY PUTTING US ALL IN MORE DEBT – he is WRONG!

THE NEED IS SIMPLY NOT THERE for anything other than a phone call for assistance in at least 7 of Canada's 10 provinces where THE MAJORITY of polling stations would have 0% French voters.

Alberta 0.68%, British Columbia 0.38%, Manitoba 1.5%, Nova Scotia 1.75%,
Ontario 2.23%, Saskatchewan 0.42%, Newfoundland and Labrador 0.22,
New Brunswick 28.36% and Quebec 79.9%
